

KITCHEN INVENTORY

Do you have a meal plan for each day? Do you follow your meal plan? If not, why not?

Do you ever struggle with frozen foods not thawing in time for dinner? How come?

Can you find recipe ingredients when you need them?

How do you feel when you open the refrigerator? Why is that?

Do you have a method for storing leftovers? If so, does it work well for you or do you have multiple science experiments going on at one time?

Do you have a daily kitchen cleaning routine? Do you have a regular deep cleaning routine for the kitchen?

Do you have adequate storage for the items you currently own?

Do you use all the kitchen items you own on a regular basis? What is just taking up space in your kitchen?

Does clutter pile up on your counters? How come?

What is the one thing that stands between you and a clean, organized kitchen?
