

30 Things You Can Do to Bless Others

- Leave a surprise gift on a friend or neighbor's doorstep.
- Invite a family over for a cozy dinner.
- Bring dinner to a friend.
- Invite your friend's children over for a playdate so she can have a break.
- Offer to babysit so your friends can have a date night.
- Rake leaves or shovel snow for a neighbor.
- Pay for a drive-thru meal or coffee for the customer behind you.
- Write a note of appreciation to a friend or someone who serves your family in some way.
- Text someone a word of encouragement.
- Bring flowers to a friend or neighbor.
- Donate some canned goods to the local food shelter.
- Donate belongings that are in good condition to a local charity.
- Plan a time to volunteer for a local charity or school and do it.
- Offer to run errands for a friend or neighbor.
- Send a thank you note to your child's teacher, coach, or other adult who mentors your child.
- Surprise your spouse or kids with breakfast in bed.
- Talk to someone you don't know at church, school event, or sports game.
- Write a letter of encouragement to a missionary or someone who serves your community.
- Offer to pray with someone.
- Perform a special act of service for someone in your family.
- Cut out coupons and leave them by the items in the grocery store.
- Donate blood.
- Give an inspiring book to a friend who might need its message.
- Give a sincere compliment to someone.
- Give an unexpected gift to someone.
- Leave a larger tip for your server when you dine at a restaurant.
- Invite some other families over for a Family Fun Night.
- Host a potluck dinner.
- Help someone with a project at their home.
- Bake a special treat for a friend, neighbor, or coworker.